8 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10 AT SEATTLE

11 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

12 Plaintiff,

13 v.

14 SHANNON G. HARTFIELD et al.,

15 Defendants.

CASE NO. 2:22-cr-00176-LK

ORDER CONTINUING PRETRIAL
MOTIONS DEADLINE

16 This matter comes before the Court on Defendant Shannon Hartfield's Unopposed Motion
17 to Extend Pretrial Motions Deadline. Dkt. No. 115. Mr. Hartfield seeks to move the pretrial
18 motions deadline from May 26, 2025 to June 6, 2025. Id. at 1. Mr. Hartfield represents that
19 codefendant Danesxy Ortega's counsel joins the motion and that the Government does not object
20 to it. Id. Trial is currently set for July 21, 2025. Dkt. No. 99.

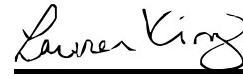

21 According to Mr. Hartfield, “[t]here are several reasons that warrant a slightly later motions
22 deadline date.” Dkt. No. 115 at 1. First, Mr. Ortega’s counsel has filed a motion to continue the 23 trial, Dkt. No. 114, and because Mr. Ortega and Mr. Hartfield oppose the motion, id. at 2, Mr.
24 Hartfield is concerned that the motion to continue the trial may or may not be ruled on prior to the

1 current pretrial motions deadline, Dkt. No. 115 at 1. “The parties want to have a ruling on the
2 motion to continue trial before motions are filed.” Id. Second, the Government recently filed a
3 Third Superseding Indictment that “substantially changed the breadth of the conspiracy charge in
4 Count 1 and added numerous additional counts of robberies and 18 U.S.C. Section 924(c)
5 violations.” Id. at 2. In light of these changes, “[c]ounsel for both Mr. Hartfield and Mr. Ortega
6 need additional time to evaluate [pretrial] motions.” Id.

7 Under Local Criminal Rule 12(c)(1), good cause must be shown to extend the deadline for 8 pretrial motions. See also Fed. R. Crim. P. 45(b)(1)(A). Given the uncertainty the parties face due
9 to the pending motion to continue the trial and the additional time needed to consider pretrial
10 motions in light of the Third Superseding Indictment, the Court finds good cause under the 11 circumstances to grant the requested extension for filing the parties’ pretrial motions. However,
12 absent a continuance of trial or other extraordinary circumstances, the Court will not continue the 13 pretrial motions deadline again. United States v. Gutierrez-Fosella et al., Case No. 22-cr-42, Dkt.
14 No. 44 at (April 22, 2022) (“Providing the Court inadequate time to address pretrial motions does 15 not serve the interests of justice.”).

16 For these reasons, the Court GRANTS Mr. Hartfield’s motion, Dkt. No. 115, and ORDERS
17 that the pretrial motions deadline shall be continued from May 26, 2025 to June 6, 2025.

18 Dated this 22nd day of May, 2025.
